Independence Day Celebration Report 2023

As soon as we think about Independence Day, transmission of new energy takes place in the body. One week earlier we had conducted a meeting with HODs of all streams regarding celebration of 77th Independence Day. It was circulated earlier to be gathered on 15th August at 7 am in the campus. Accordingly faculty members, students, NSS volunteers as well as admin staff were present. Right from 6 am our helping staff spread, carpet, chair and fitted sound system, podium etc.

All possible decorations were completed by them within short span of time. Background of the stage was tricolor flag made by cloth & Ashok Chakra by paper, looking gorgeous. Tricolor balloons were also pasted on walls.

The chief guest Vice President Santosh Kumar Thakur alongwith P.C Dr V. N Sharma Sir arrived campus at 7:30 am. According to agenda program started. Welcome speech given by Marge Engo HOD Commerce Department.

Registrar Sohan Jha Sir, PC Sir & Chief guest reached near the flag post. Flag was unfurled by Chief Guest followed by National Anthem.

Then P.C Dr. V.N Sharma Sir addressed the gatherings. It was very good and enthusiastic speech. Not only this the recitation of hilarious poem KHOON-KHOON was to good.

The cultural program was also performed by the students.

At the fag end of the program vote of thanks was given by Academic Coordinator Mr. K .K Jha Sir. He thanked all the present members and also to them who were directly or indirectly supported the program.

After vote of thank sweets packet were distributed to all present members in the campus.

Then all chairs, carpets and other articles used were collected and kept in store.

Again we gathered in evening for “Retreat Ceremony”. We took the flag down, with following all possible protocol .The flag was folded and kept in safe custody with honour.

Jai Hind.
