Gandhi Jayanti and Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti Celebration at Arunodaya University

On the auspicious occasion of 2nd October 2025, Arunodaya University, Lekhi, celebrated Gandhi Jayanti and Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti with great reverence and enthusiasm in Block-A of the university campus. Although the day was officially declared a holiday on account of Dussehra and Gandhi Jayanti, the spirit of patriotism and devotion brought together the university officials residing on campus, along with the dedicated Group-D staff, to pay homage to the two great sons of India — Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation, and Lal Bahadur Shastri Ji, the second Prime Minister of India.

The program commenced with the ceremonial singing of the National Anthem, which filled the atmosphere with a sense of unity and pride. Floral tributes were offered at the statues of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri Ji by the university staff, symbolizing respect and gratitude towards their remarkable contributions to the nation.

On this occasion, the Pro Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Divendra Dubey, addressed the gathering and highlighted the vision, values, and leadership of Mahatma Gandhi, emphasizing how his ideals of truth, non-violence, and self-reliance remain relevant in the present era. The Dean of Academics, Mr. Sohan Kumar Jha, and the Controller of Examinations, Dr. S.K. Tripathi, remembered Bapu through soulful renditions of patriotic songs —

“De Di Hame Azadi Bina Khadag Bina Dhaal, Sabarmati Ke Sant Tune Kar Diya Kamal” and “Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram, Patit Pawan Sitaram, Ishwar Allah Tero Naam, Sabko Sanmati De Bhagwan.” Their musical tributes resonated deeply with the audience and evoked patriotic emotions.

The celebration was also graced by the presence of Assistance Controller of Examinations, Mr. Vijayanand Pandey & Mr. Gorakshnath Fulare, Chief Accountant, Mr. R. Krishnan, Mr. Nagesh Nishad, and all Group-D employees of the university. Their participation reflected the inclusive spirit of the occasion, where every member of the university family came forward to honor the legacy of the great leaders.

In his address, the NSS Coordinator and Dean of Student Welfare, Mr. Anurag Tiwari, paid heartfelt tribute to both Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri Ji. He elaborated on the timeless message of Gandhi Ji — “Ahimsa Parmo Dharma” (Non-violence is the supreme duty) and “Simple Living, High Thinking.” He urged everyone present to imbibe these values in their daily lives and contribute to building a peaceful and progressive society. He further reminded that Lal Bahadur Shastri’s clarion call of “Jai Jawan Jai Kisan” continues to inspire the nation, symbolizing the strength of our farmers and soldiers, the backbone of India.

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Mr. Anurag Tiwari, who expressed gratitude to all dignitaries, staff members, and participants for their active involvement and support. He also emphasized that the teachings of these great leaders are not merely historical references but guiding lights for present and future generations.

The program at Arunodaya University served not only as a tribute but also as a reminder of the values of peace, humility, service, and patriotism that Gandhi Ji and Shastri Ji stood for. The celebration rekindled the spirit of national pride and inspired everyone to walk on the path shown by these two eminent leaders.
